

Stephen R. Lankton, MSW, DAHB is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in Phoenix, Arizona. He is the Editor-in-Chief of the American Journal of Clinical Hypnosis and a Fellow, and Approved Consultant, American Society of Clinical Hypnosis. He serves as Secretary and of the Arizona Behavioral Health Examiners Board Credential Committee. He is a Diplomate in Clinical Hypnosis, and President Emeritus of the American Hypnosis Board for Clinical Social Work. Among his awards he is the recipient of “Lifetime Achievement Award for Outstanding Contribution to the Field of Psychotherapy” and the “Irving Secter Award for the advancement of clinical hypnosis.” He is the author of 18 clinical books with translations in several languages regarding techniques of hypnosis, family therapy, and brief therapy. He is currently a psychotherapist in private practice in Phoenix and conducts professionals training seminars throughout the world.